Colin Burfee

Dear and Dear Sir,

When I saw you at Wrentham dog goes told me that you had graph of Father Mottew, with which you would be willing to part. Would it be convenient for you to leave it at the store of Tappan & Deane, ^{114, Washington St.} by Friday? as I expect to be in the city that day in the forenoon. Now you not some other that you would be willing to give away? I want one of Dr Cholmeris. -

Best I want yours. Please to write me a short note, and tell me something about Father Mottew.
How old is he. &c

Very sincerely yours,
Colin Burfee.

Rev Amos A Phelps.
